

BIOGRAPHY

Collin has been entertaining audiences for over 15 years across the globe. She is an accomplished singer, actor, model and writer. As a military child, Collin moved from place to place always finding new adventures. When she found her voice, she knew she had to sing!

While studying at the University of Northern Colorado, Collin won the prestigious NATS musical theatre singing competition in her freshman year, winning over upper classmen from across the country. This kick started her career. She was quickly seen in regional shows while still going to school.

Shortly after graduation she found her way to the high seas as a production singer for Norwegian cruise lines where she was discovered by producer David Eaton (Polyphonic Spree, Kenny Wayne Sheppard, Dynamite Hack). She recorded a short EP, Kaepolicious, and performed all over California, including the famed Viper Club.

After two years of touring with her band, she was asked to be Belle in Beauty and the Beast in Hong Kong. With a love a Disney, she had to say yes and packed her bags to move across the world.

She hasn't stopped since. Performing in theatres, clubs, and arenas she has delighted audiences everywhere.

Some of her favourite shows include Aida, Nine, Chess, and Anything Goes. Notably, Collin was seen in three-time Oscar winner Stephen Schwartz's production, "Magic To Do" as Cat. The show is a blend of magic, musical theatre and art, turning traditional theatre on its head.

She now calls Melbourne, Australia home and can be seen at every turn. She toured for two years all around Australia with "Funhouse - The Ultimate P!nk Experience, on lead vocals.

She has performed across Australia Sing, Swing, Get in the Mood! with the Pacific Belles, retro singing group. They have headlined on Bravo Cruise of the Arts, been seen on the tv program The Living Room and are ambassadors for the charity Sing for Good.

Her energy, quirk and talent excite every performance. Stay tuned for what this girl comes up with next!
